

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS—

FIRST DISTRICT

Hon. Martin L. Clardy, Farmington, St. Francois county, Washington address: 523 Main street, N. W.

STATE SENATOR,

Hon. R. Barrett Oliver Jackson, Cape Girardeau.

CITY OFFICERS.

Representative
Prosecuting Attorney..... Vallee Harold
Circuit Court Clerk..... Jules B. Guignon
Jeff. County Court..... Kerlagon
Judge..... Louis N. Ziegler
Collector..... Francis J. Ziegler
Treasurer..... Oliver D. Harris
Assessor..... Frank Buck
Surveyor..... Paul H. Jones
School Commissioner..... Felix H. Janis
Public Administrator..... C. G. Rozier

CITY OFFICERS.

Mayor..... Charles C. Rozier
1st Ward Alderman..... Valentine & Bottler
2nd Ward..... John E. Jokert
3rd Ward..... Anton Sampson
4th Ward..... Joseph Jokert
5th Ward..... Leon Jokert
6th Ward..... Jules B. Guignon
7th Ward..... Oliver D. Harris
8th Ward..... D. Thomas
9th Ward..... Jacob Yealy
Board of Aldermen meets 4th Monday in March, April, September and December.

CIRCUIT COURT.

James D. Fox, Judge, Fredericksburg, Madison County.

Judge Term.

First Monday in May
All Term..... First Monday in November

PROBATE COURT.

John Wm. H. Bantz..... June 1st
Spring Term..... Second Monday in March
Summer Term..... Second Monday in June
All Term..... Second Monday in September
Winter Term..... Second Monday in December

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Gen. C. W. Hamm..... Presiding Justice
Gen. Geo. W. Grindell..... Associate Justice
Roman Buck..... Associate Justice
Hunting Term..... Second Monday in May
Summer Term..... Second Monday in August
All Term..... Second Monday in November
Winter Term..... Second Monday in February
Justice of the Peace, Ste. Genevieve Town
dp., Ferdinand A. Roy.

Churches.

Pastors and clerics of all congregations are respectfully requested to send me for publication name, dates of regular services, special services, protracted meetings, name of pastor, location and denomination, and any other information of interest to their respective congregations.

STE. GENEVIEVE

Roman Catholic, Rev. Father Weis, Pastor, Mass every Sunday at 7 a. m. Vespers at 8 a. m.

German Lutheran..... Pastor
Services every Sunday at 10 a. m.

ST. MARY

Roman Catholic, Rev. Father Manden, pastor, Mass every Sunday at 7 and 10 a. m. Vespers at 3 p. m.

NEW OFFENBURG

St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, Rev. Father Pfeifer, pastor, Mass every Sunday at 7 a. m. am.

St. Mary's Roman Catholic, Rev. Father Yerich, pastor, Mass every Sunday at 10 a. m.

BLOOMSDALE

Roman Catholic, Rev. Father Walsh, pastor, Mass every Sunday at 10 a. m.

LAWRENCETON

Roman Catholic, Rev. Father.... pastor, Mass every Sunday at 10 a. m.

ISLE DU BOIS.

Lebanon Baptist Church, Sullivan Frazier, pastor, Wm. E. Frazier, Clerk of Services, Saturday and Sunday evenings of each month at 3 p. m., Saturday and 10 a. m., Sunday.

Lebanon M. E. Church, South, Hudday and with Pastors: F. G. Poston, Stewart, services 2nd Sunday, at 7:30 a. m. by John Hendy and 4th Sunday, at 11 a. m. by W. S. Smith, and 1st and 3d Sundays, at 5 p. m. by Hendy; Saturday before the 4th Sunday, at 10 a. m. by Smith.

Professional Cards

THOS. B. WHITLEDGE,
Atty' at Law,

ST. MARY, MO.

Will attend promptly to all business entrusted to his care.

VALLEE HAROLD,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
AND—

PROSECUTING ATT' Y.

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

Office in Court House.

45-4

FIRMIN A. ROZIER,
Attorney at Law,

(Office in Bank Building.)

Ste. Genevieve, Mo.

CHAS. C. ROZIER,
Attorney at Law,

Real Estate Agent,

Conveyancer and Notary Public,

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

Will promptly and faithfully attend to all business entrusted to him, and will be assisted by Carter & Clark, of Farmington, in all circuit and Supreme court cases.

Collections made a specialty. 45-4

HENRY S. SHAW

Attorney at Law,

Ste. Genevieve, Missouri.

Will practice in the courts of the twentieth judicial circuit, make collections, pay taxes for on-residents, and faithfully attend to any and all business entrusted to his care.

PAUL L. LEMPKE,

County Surveyor and Real Estate

AGENT,

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

ONE PRICE

Clothing Store

Opposite the Court House.)

C W HAMM

Merchant Tailor.

Piece Goods, ready made and homemade clothing, Gent's furnishings, gosse, Hats, caps, Trunks, Valises, Satchels and all other goods usually kept in a first class country clothing store.

Persons wishing clothing made to order can be suited in style and price.

STE. GENEVIEVE, MO.

ARE YOU PREPARED
to the FAIR PLAY with
per year in advance.

Our carpenters all appear busy.

Circuit Court will convene on Monday.

Capt. Alex. Ziegler, of Pevely, spent Sunday in our city.

There was a heavy rain and thunder storm Saturday night.

Sunday last was an ugly day, cloudy and rainy all through.

Loud complaints are beginning to be made about bad roads.

S. O. Conway, of Union Township, has removed to Farmington.

Jules B. Guignon is building a small tenement on the plank road.

Rozier & Jokert bought 500 bushels of apples from one person, Joe Roth.

E. B. Werner, of this county, is a teacher in a select school at Farmington.

Gen. F. A. Rozier sold 250 bushels of apples to John L. Bovierie, last week.

Miss Sallie Carlisle spent last week in St. Louis, visiting her sister Mrs. Anna Rozier.

J. L. Royston, St. Louis, Mo., says: Brown's Iron Bitters is certainly an invaluable tonic.

Frank Papin has just built and moved into dwelling near South Gabourie wagon bridge.

Parties living in the immediate vicinity of Farmington are bringing their oats to this market.

Last month was the meanest and driest October we have seen in a quarter of a century.

The grass in the court house yard looks greener now than it did at any time during last summer.

Coenie Reeder, who had been visiting relatives here, returned to St. Louis, Sunday, by the Elliott.

The wood work, interior and window frames, of the fire-proof office were given a fresh coat of paint this week.

The largest variety of cook and heating stoves for sale at

KARL MUELLER'S.

"Uncle" Jake Yealey, the City Collector, thinks that times are hard because the tax payers are rather slow in paying up.

Mrs. Morris, the dressmaker, is removing her household goods to Farmington, which place she will make her future home.

Misses Blanche and Corrine Ziegler returned by Saturday night's packet from a two weeks' visit to friends and relatives in St. Louis.

When you are in town next week, drop into Miss Lizzie Zeiser's restaurant and try a dish of those fresh oysters. They're immense.

Parties wishing a number one life insurance will do well to address A. L. Lumsford, agent of the New York Life Insurance Co., St. Mary, Mo.

A number of small boys made use of the court house hall all afternoon, of last Sunday, to play marbles in the rain driving them off the street.

If we had had a skiff up town Sunday, we believe we would go a-boating. The water in the street culverts were amply deep to permit of it.

One of our prominent merchants made the prediction to us the other day, that in a year from now there would be more business failures all over the country than during a like period for a long while back.

Miss Louisa Lorenz, of Perry Co., niece of Mr. Baum, the boot and shoe man, is stopping with her uncle and attending the sisters' school. Some day Miss Louisa will be one of the reigning belles of Perry county.

A couple of men set up a tent near the jail Monday and exhibited for several days a calf with a human head and a calf with two heads, two tails and six legs, the bodies being joined about midway. Both the monstrosities were dead.

Thursday, All Saints' Day, was a holiday of obligation among Catholics and was very generally observed in town. On that day also the Catholics observed the beautiful ceremony—in preparation for All Souls' Day—of strewing flowers over the graves of their dead.

Cullen Brown is another old Ste. Genevieve county boy who made a fortune at West Plains. In the instance of the town he invested a few hundred dollars in real estate there and held on until the big boom came, when he sold out and as the result found himself the possessor of a snug little fortune.

ARE YOU PREPARED
to the FAIR PLAY with
per year in advance.

We had a heavy rain and thunder storm Saturday night.

Squire Dutton and his wife were in town, Thursday, for while.

Mrs. Clara Hertzlich is visiting her brother, Charles Hertzlich, at French Ville.

Seventy-two bushels of apples were gathered from two trees in Judge Bantz's orchard.

"Bubbin" is the classic cognomen of the youth who carries the mail between here and Chester.

C. H. Huntley, St. Louis, says Brown's Iron Bitters has done me a great deal good in rheumatism.

Sheriff Naumann has had the court house nicely cleaned preparatory to the meeting of the Circuit court.

County Clerk Kegler was confined to his room the day of the week with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Louis Lewis, colored, round, turned to us, Wednesday, the day before yesterday, when we advertised a lost some time ago.

News from Perryville says our old pard and dutiful son of Sam Tom Powers, is gloriously happy. It's a girl this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyphus, Thornton, celebrated their silver wedding on Friday of last week. We hope that they may live to see their golden one.

The Cornwall Copper mines has 1900 tons of ore on hand. It is probable the working force which is now about 110, will be cut down about one-third.

Miss Emma Bisch, of Bonne Terre, a pretty Miss who has just passed it to her teens, is boarding at Mr. Claus' Lett's parents' and attending school at the convent.

Mr. Frank Valle, superintendent of Valle Mines, was in town Tuesday, to bid good-bye to his friends and relatives. He leaves to-day with his family for Texas.

It was great fun to see George Wilder make a pass at a foot ball, miss it and tumble over into a stream of water, six inches deep, with all his Sunday clothes on.

We are informed that Miss Blanche Boyer, daughter of our esteemed friend, Mr. Jacob L. Boyer, of Bloomfield, is taking enviable rank at the convent as a student.

Many farmers took advantage of the fair weather of this week to haul their wheat to market. On Wednesday the Cone Mills paid out sometimes over one thousand dollars.

An error of the types made us say, last week that a bond of twelve thousand dollars would be required of the superintendent of the Poor Farm.

Father Weiss announced in church Thursday, that there would be a festival during the coming holdays to raise funds to pay for the debt yet due on the organ, and for other church purposes.

Dr. Guibord made quite a specimen of his small orchard, this year. He sold $125 worth of apples to Bovierie, besides keeping a hundred bushels for his own use and making nine barrels of cider.

You never notice that in walking with your arms hanging loosely down, the right arm swings in with the movement of the left leg while vice versa, the left arm beats in with the right leg? Just try once how awkward it feels to move the two limbs on either side together.

Dr. Andre presented us with a copy of the New Orleans Times-Democrat, the other day, that does credit to the journalistic enterprise of the Crescent City. It consists of forty pages and contains interviews with the Governors of all the southern states on their progress and prospects for the future.

No matter how hard the times the property owner generally rakes enough coin together to pay his taxes. Collector Ziegler had not made his last monthly statement in time for us to publish it in this issue, but he informed us that his collectors for October were much better than for the corresponding month of last year.

An exciting half-mile race was run on the Manning track, on Saturday last, between Wm. Brown's young mare, Sallie Brown, and Miles' old mare, "Ghoulie." Sallie winning. Each horse had its warm backers and a good deal of property changed hands on the result of the race. Money, oats, corn, knives, overcoats and almost everything was wagered.

Cullen Brown is another old Ste. Genevieve county boy who made a fortune at West Plains. In the instance of the town he invested a few hundred dollars in real estate there and held on until the big boom came, when he sold out and as the result found himself the possessor of a snug little fortune.

tax on the same holds against its property, the judge holding that its organization is purely charitable and, therefore, none of its property is subject to taxation.

Miss Clara Hertzlich is visiting her brother, Charles Hertzlich, at French Ville.

Seventy-two bushels of apples were gathered from two trees in Judge Bantz's orchard.

"Bubbin" is the classic cognomen of the youth who carries the mail between here and Chester.

C. H. Huntley, St. Louis, says Brown's Iron Bitters has done me a great deal good in rheumatism.

Sheriff Naumann has had the court house nicely cleaned preparatory to the meeting of the Circuit court.

County Clerk Kegler was confined to his room the day of the week with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Louis Lewis, colored, round, turned to us